

Confession for Guidance

Although my day may be filled with darkness and confusion, I speak light. The Lord is my light and my salvation. Who then, shall I fear? I have ears to hear, therefore I will hear God's instruction today. God's word will be a lamp to my feet and a light to my path. His promises are a light into my life today. God's word will give me guidance. The word will show me what to do. The Holy Spirit has been sent to show me things to come. The Holy Spirit will also be a light into my life today. Because I am a mature child of God, I am led by the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit will show me what to do. Angels watch over and protect me. They will keep me from dashing my foot against a stone. No problem is bigger than the word of God. No problem is bigger than the Holy Spirit. No problem is bigger than my angels. Therefore, no problem is bigger than me.

God will arise in me and my enemies will be scattered. If God be for me, who can be against me? I am God's sheep. I know His voice. I will not follow a stranger. I am righteous and walk in God's ways. Therefore, my path grows brighter every day. I am walking away from the darkness of confusion and into the light of God's will and revelation.

Today will be a good day. It is another day the Lord has made, to rejoice and be glad. God is leading me and goodness and mercy are following me. Because God loves me, when I lay down tonight, God will give me sleep. This will be a good day, because I cannot fail.
